Action Taken Report on Feedback

Academic Year 2020-21

The institution collects feedback on curriculum, teaching-learning and academic facilities from stakeholders like Students, Alumni, Teachers, Parents and Employers. After analysis of feedback received from stakeholders, the IQAC discussed on the report for taking necessary actions. With further approval of the College Development Committee, IQAC took the following actions based on suggestions and analysis.

Suggestions of stakeholders	Action taken by the institution
The provision of feedback about teachers should be extended.	Faculty members were suggested to inform and collect feedback from students and interfaculty members.
Solving the problems raised in the Covid-19 pandemic situation.	Various issues were reported in the annual academic work according to the discussion regularly and informed the students.
Participation of faculty members and students in research-based activities.	The Principal advised the faculty members and motivated them for research-based activities.
Increase more Books as per the new CBCS pattern syllabus in the Library	Books as per the new CBCS pattern syllabus have been purchased and are available for the students in the Library
Widen the internet and Wi-Fi facilities	As per the suggestion of students, the internet facility was provided to all departments including the library for asses of e-content.

Thus, the feedback given by the Students, Alumni, Teachers, Parents and Employers was analyzed and the above action was taken to satisfy the expectations of stakeholders.
